My Husband doesn't really trust me...

"I guess no man ever trusts a woman when it comes to certain things.

"For instance, every Thursday (that's my day to take the car) I get the same old speech with the car keys. Something like this:

"Now don't forget to get gas, and don't forget it's Royal 76, and be sure to check the water, and see if we need oil, we take Royal Triton such-and-such a weight, et cetera, et cetera.'

"I just let him ramble on; all the time I'm thinking about the price of round steak and asparagus.

"Then I just roll the car to our Union Oil dealer on the corner. We've been going there for years, and he knows just what to do. So he takes care of All Those Things* while I'm checking my grocery list. I don't even have to watch!

"Then when my husband comes home and starts in, 'Did you?...did you?...did you?' I just say 'Yes dear, yes dear, yes dear.'

KENNETH BROTT, Office Manager

The current State Assembly Committee investigation of Highway Commission policies brings the first real ray of hope of effecting a change.

And more encouraging is the fact that the Committee has already discovered the crux of the matter. That is the Highway Commission policy of "secret" selection of routes before any fact or consideration is given to the official highway boards of counties, cities or the

At this stage of its investigation the Assembly Committee has indicated that it believes the remedy lies in legislation compelling the Highway Commission to first consult with county and city highway bodies and hold required of highway routes.

It is to be hoped that the Committee will make such a recommendation to the State Legislature without delay.

As a further public safeguard, and in wide popular demand, is the suggestion that members of the Highway Commission be elected by the people in districts of the State similar to the manner of electing the State Board of

IT STARTED OUT as a breeze for the Mexican Colony. They scored twice in the first inning when Art "Jurado tripled a nd once more in the third on Victor Reyes' single.

But the Builders came to life finally in the bottom of the fourth with singles by Lara and Al Espinoza and two runs crossed the plate to make it 3-2.

Richard Luzano's double in the fifth and a subsequent error tied the score and 3-3.

Cleo James got on on an error and Lewis and he came in on pass

HOWEVER, the Colony again struck out for two runs in the sixth and added three more in the ning runs.

The game had beer a seesaw
